

Law & Policy Group

GRIST

Turkey allows pension plan contributions in foreign currency

By Evsen Olmez, Fiona Webster and Stephanie Rosseau
31 Mar 2020

Turkish nationals who are no longer residents of the country and individuals born in Turkey who have given up their Turkish nationality ("blue card" holders), can contribute to a Turkish private pension plan using foreign currency. However, the law allows the president to reduce the state pension contributions to 10% for those contributions paid in foreign currency, capped at the monthly gross minimum wage.

Related resource

- Legislative journal (Turkish) (Legislative register, 26 Mar 2020)

Note: Mercer is not engaged in the practice of law, accounting or medicine. Any commentary in this article does not constitute and is not a substitute for legal, tax or medical advice. Readers of this article should consult a legal, tax or medical expert for advice on those matters.